TIME

*The clock of life is wound but once
 And no one has the power
 To tell just when the hands will stop
 At late or early hour.
 Now is the only time you own,
 Live, Love, Toil with a will
 Place no trust in the morrow
 For the clock may then be still.*

“Boast not thyself of tomorrow, for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.” Proverbs 27:1

OUR THEME: “ SHOWING GOD’S LOVE BY SERVING OTHERS”

Your Ultimate Prayer Partners

... We do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. - Romans 8:26, NRSV

The end of Romans 8 is so rich that one could spend hours contemplating the truths there and still not reach the end. It is encouraging to know that when we are in prayer we never pray alone, for the ultimate partners in intercession are with us. With just a cursory glance we see the Holy Spirit involved in our prayers in five ways (Romans 8:26-27):

1. The Spirit helps us in our weakness.
2. The Spirit intercedes when we do not know what we ought to pray for.
3. The Spirit prays with sighs too deep for words.
4. The Spirit and the Father are in sync with one another.
5. The Spirit intercedes in accordance with God's will.

Each of those principles deserves much consideration, but they demonstrate the reason our prayers are so powerful: it is not our own spirituality but the participation of the Father and the Holy Spirit in our season of prayer. It is by the presence and power of the Spirit that we cry out to our Abba (Rom. 8:15-16). Even more, we read in verse 34, “It is Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us.”

The Father, Son and Spirit are intertwined in your prayers in such a way that we are ultimately confident that our prayers are much more powerful than we can imagine. They are much more in tune with God's will than we know. They are in process of being answered as we utter the words. This is why Romans 8:28 is truer than we realize. Never separate that verse from prayer! Your prayers matter because your ultimate prayer partners are tirelessly enmeshed into the eternal providence and power of God! Never be intimidated by prayer! It unlocks a Diving partnership!

BACK TO SCHOOL ...

Soon, many of our young people will pick up pencil and books and return to the classroom for another nine month session. You're fortunate to have an opportunity like this; but, remember that every opportunity carries with it certain responsibilities. Perhaps these suggestions will prove helpful in your school experience.

Be fair. So many times in school work, the easy way is not necessarily the most honorable course to pursue. Whether it be in testing, preparation for assignments, or whatever, be sure you are absolutely honest.

Be pure. Your moral standard as a child of God will not allow you to engage in some of the activities conducted by your classmates. You will be respected for living according to your convictions.

Be industrious. Your formal education is a once in a lifetime proposition. Failure to grasp every possible gem of knowledge is sure to be regretted later.

Be careful. The teaching of evolution and skepticism has become quite popular in some classrooms. Don't accept something just because the teacher said it.

Don't allow school work to interfere with your service to God. No matter how highly you value your education, its importance does not exceed the importance of your duties as a Christian.

May nine months from now find each of you stronger and better informed Christians.
